First Annual Long Beach Fall Classic

Sunday, November 16, 2008 - Marine Stadium

Long Beach State swept by local rivals UCSB & UCI this weekend during Beach Crew's First Annual Long Beach Fall Classic Regatta. The 5000 meter course consisted of a run down Marine Stadium and once around Naples Island.

It was a beautiful sunny morning in Long Beach with no wind and flat water. The men's novice team celebrated their victory with a head race time of 16:01, followed by UCI A (17:11), UCI B (19:20), & UCI C (19:21). The Women's Varsity 8+ event was a close call with The Beach falling a second behind at 17.08.36 to UCI at 17.07.23. The Beach conquered three out of five sprints in the Women's Novice 8+ event to UC Santa Barbara and UC Irvine on a modified course. UC Santa Barbara celebrated the other two heats.

CSULB hopes to continue and expand this autumn rowing event to other collegiate teams in the years to come.

Beach Crew would like to thank members of the Long Beach Rowing Association (LBRA) for assisting with the race course.

San Diego Fall Classic: CANCELLED

Sunday, November 9, 2008 - Mission Bay, San Diego

Who said it rains in San Diego? Wind gusts of 20+ MPH, gloomy weather, and a little rain, caused some good white-caps in Mission Bay. The 3.25 mile head race was cancelled. The teams still had a great time.

CSU Long Beach had three boats entered into the Men's Novice 4+, two boats in the Women's Novice 8+, and one boat in the Women's Novice 4+, Men's Open Novice 8+, Men's Open 8+, and the Women's Collegiate 8+ events.

Big thanks go out to the Hardin and Clark families for hosting the teams.

Beach Crew looks forward to the Spring when they will travel back to San Diego for Crew Classic.
